

Saturday, April 17, 2010
Polliwog Park, Manhattan Beach

Earth Day

celebration & concert

- South Bay Bicycle Coalition & Beach Cities Cycling Club -

Presents Earth Day Bike Ride Celebration

- All cyclists are welcome and encouraged: roadies, cruisers, commuters and families.
- All riders must wear a helmet, ride safely, obey all traffic laws and sign a waiver form.
- Ride registration begins at 10:00 am at the Marine Ave Park (Marine & Redondo ave), for a ride start time of 10:30 sharp, registered participants will receive a commemorative 1st Annual Earth Day Bike Ride wristband.
- There will be a Police escort and a leisurely ride pace to Polliwog Park (approx. 1 mile).
- There will be a Bike Valet at the finish, so riders can check their bikes and participate in the Earth Day festivities.

Sponsored by the South Bay Bicycle
Coalition & Beach
Cities Cycling Club

Have fun and ride safely -
Todd Dipaola Chair, So Bay
Bicycle Coalition & Jim Hannon,
President of the BCC Club

